

Bangla Language Processing (BLP) Workshop Sponsorship Package

<https://blp-workshop.github.io/>

The third Bangla Language Processing (BLP) Workshop, co-located with NAACL, is set for June 1 - 5, 2027 in San Francisco, California, United States. This workshop fosters collaboration and innovation in Bangla language processing, bringing together global leaders from academia, industry, and emerging student researchers.

We cordially invite your organization to sponsor this pivotal event. As a benefactor, you'll gain unique access to world-renowned experts, showcase your innovations, and enhance your global recognition in the speech and language sector.

Your support will amplify our program's impact, facilitate student scholarships, and boost international participation. While standard sponsorship packages are outlined below, we're open to tailored arrangements to suit your organization's needs.
